

King George School Admirable Use Policy

The following is the Admirable Use Policy for using technology at King George School. This policy was created by the grade six students along with staff. Each student is required to understand this policy to the best of their ability and follow the rules.

Caring for myself, others, and technology

As a student using technology at King George School I will care for...

Myself by:

- Critically using technology as a resource
- Communicating purposefully and sharing responsibly with others
- Continually learning as a digital citizen
- Safely managing my personal information
- Constructing knowledge through meaningful research

Others by:

- Considering the learning and technology needs of others
- Using appropriate language and communicating respectfully at all times
- Respecting the property, creative work, and personal information of others
- Using technology that supports learning
- Remembering that the use of technology is a privilege

Technology (hardware and software) by:

- Leaving all school equipment so that it is ready to be used by others
- Respectfully handling devices
- Reporting any problems as soon as I see them

Violation of the CBE Policy

Each situation is dealt with on an individual basis and a breach of this policy may result in:

- Notification to parents;
- Restriction or loss of educational technology privileges;
- School-based disciplinary consequences; and/or
- Police intervention and/or legal action
